

ZippyPaws®

Catalog 2022

Dear ZippyPaws Family,

Let's start this off with a collective round of applause for getting through 2021!

Given the ever-changing landscape of business - and let's be real, just life in general - your continued support and enthusiasm has not been lost on us. We appreciate you!

We've been humbled as a brand with the ability to keep doing what we love and we believe that passion shows in our newest product offerings and partnerships.

We are pleased to announce our newest title as the Official Dog Toy of the Los Angeles Kings! This has given us the chance to connect with our local and national community in new and inspiring ways.

ZippyPaws is also working on multiple licensing agreements, with the first collaboration product line launching soon in 2022! We feel that collaborating with strategic partnerships help strengthen our brand and help reach a wider audience of dog lovers.

As I expand my family - we welcomed twin boys Roman and August in December - my goal for ZippyPaws is to continue making dog toys that are safe and fun for the whole family; whatever that may look like for you because families come in all shapes and sizes! (In case you're wondering, Birdie and Kramer are the best fur-siblings!)

I hope that ZippyPaws toys bring many happy tail wags to joyful families across the globe and that our company continues to give you the best service in the industry.
